St. Paul's 2023 Journey through the Bible: A Conversation

So what is this “Bible Journey” I’ve been hearing about?

It’s an opportunity for our church family to read through the Bible cover to cover. By reading all the books, we shall witness the awesome depth of God bringing us all into the wonderful story of God’s love for us all. As we read through each book, you can mark your progress using this guide.

I’ve always wanted to read the whole Bible, but whenever I’ve started, I always give up by Leviticus.

That’s a common experience. That’s why our reading order shifts between Old and New Testaments, generally in chronological order, and sometimes grouped by types of books (examples: Minor Prophets and Pastoral Epistles). Hopefully this plan will encourage both enthusiasm and perseverance. Read a chapter... check it off.

I really worry about getting behind and being overwhelmed. What if I can’t keep up or understand what I’m reading?

Be of good cheer! Each week we will provide resources and instructions including links on how to view some very well done animated video introductions to all 66 books. (from “Bible Project” on YouTube). At the very least you can view these introductions, then read as much as you can, and move to the current assignment. The main thing is not to be discouraged, but do as much as you can and keep reading and checking off the chapters.

Will we have any “in person” Bible study to go along with this? I think that would help.
Yes, we will be have two “in person” weekly sessions in the Church Parlor on Wednesdays at Noon and 6:00 PM. For those who prefer, we will have a “Zoom” session on Tuesday Evenings at 7:00 PM. Links to the Zoom will be posted each week.

So what can I hope for in making this “journey?”

You will not only experience the joy of being able to say as a Christian “I have read the whole Bible,” but you will gain a deeper appreciation of God’s amazing love for us and our creation throughout human history. You will recognize more clearly what Martin Luther meant when he said, “The Bible is the cradle wherein Christ is laid.”

One other thing. What’s with all these lambs reading the Bible?

Oh, that’s Kevin, our church lamb and his flockmates. Kevin showed up a few years ago and has been eager to be part of our church family ever since. He has indicated that he and his friends also want to read their “Baa-bles.”

Please use the rest of the year to catch up on missed chapters and books.

A few more questions:I forgot to ask earlier. What Bible do you recommend?

Good question. There are many to choose from. Any version will be fine, though for a large reading project like this, an old King James with small print and narrow columns will tire the eyes quickly, not to mention being slowed by the tedium of the old language. Many are discovering the value of adjustable print versions on Kindle or iPads. The staff has found the Common English Bible to be quite easy to follow. Pastor Mark would love to guide you through some electronic options. NIV, NRSV, NLT, NKJV and a host of Bibles will work.

So what do I do if I just can't find time for all this reading?

Again, let us recommend going to YouTube and search for "Bible Project." They have many great video intros, including one for every book in the Bible. Most are about six minutes each. If you watch all sixty-six, you will learn a lot and we believe you will surely want to read more. The videos are that good. We know you can spare six minutes a week for this. You may wish to use your bookmark to keep track of your video watching progress. The main thing is to keep working some on each current week's book, and catch up later.

I really worry about getting behind and being overwhelmed. What if I can't keep up or understand what I'm reading?

Be of good cheer! Each week we will provide resources and instructions including links on how to view some very well done animated video introductions to all 66 books. (from "Bible Project" on YouTube). At the very least you can view these introductions, then read as much as you can, and move to the current assignment. The main thing is not to be discouraged, but do as much as you can and keep reading and checking off the chapters.

Just out of curiosity, how did you put this guide together, and where'd you find all those lambs reading the Bible?

This guide was originally created using Microsoft Word and Microsoft Publisher. The Kevin graphic on the cover and final booklet design was created by graphic artist and member Joan Connors using InDesign. The dates and suggested reading order was envisioned by Pastor Jonathan. Except for one photo of Kevin reading the Bible, all of Kevin's other "friends" and "flockmates" were created by Pastor Mark Opgrand using "Playground AI", an artificial intelligence art creator using prompts such as "happy cuddly woolly smiling lamb with big ears reading a book in a meadow." Media Minister Mike Berg has offered assistance with publishing and posting, and Deacon Susan Jackson has been developing supplemental online help resources. It's been a great team.
